

STR-Shanghai Has Obtained ISO/IEC 17020 CNAS Accreditation

STR is pleased to announce that our Shanghai laboratory has successfully obtained the ISO/IEC 17020 inspection accreditation from the Chinese National Accreditation Service for Conformity Assessment, (CNAS). The scope of accreditation covers inspection items of furniture, stationery, kitchenware & tableware, cookware, power tools, home appliances and luminaries.

STR- Shanghai is the 2nd foreign invested, privately owned inspection company to get this accreditation. This accreditation will make STR-SH more competitive in the testing industry.
